From the East

Dear Brethren,

I hope this message finds each and every one of you in good health and spirits.

The Good Lord has brought us to the beginning of September. Even though the weather is still warm outside, nature does not rest. September brings the Autumn Equinox, a natural cycle of balance and a time in which the seasons begin to transition between summer and winter.

In the Northern Hemisphere, the weather will begin to cool, the days will get shorter, and the nights will get longer. The trees will begin to change colors, and eventually, the deciduous trees will drop their leaves. Farmers look forward to and plan for the harvest, while animals begin to gather food for the months ahead or migrate to warmer climates. Autumn symbolizes equal balance. As Masons, we should take this time to reflect with nature; as the northern sky dims, the Southern Hemisphere seeks more light.

Lodges will now emerge from their summer darkness to resume regular scheduled meetings and fellowship. Our children and young adults are also returning to their local schools, colleges, and universities.

Brothers, let us rejoice in the good months we have had, give thanks for what we have accomplished, and cherish every moment. Let us remember those who are no longer with us, maintain the momentum we have created, and continue to move forward in a positive manner.

May the Grand Architect of the Universe continue to light your journey.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Erasmo U. Gonzalez
Worshipful Master

From the West

From the West:

I hope that this finds each one of you in good health and spirits.

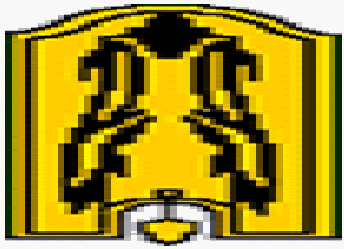

A Mason's greatest work is not found in stone, but in the quiet strength of his character. The true measure of a man is revealed in his integrity, his humility, and his unwavering commitment to do what is right, even when no one is watching. It's in that unseen work that a lasting legacy is built, one honest action and one quiet act of compassion at a time.

May the Grand Architect of the Universe bless us all.

Fraternally,

Antonio P. Cruz Jr.
Senior Warden

it is rising every time we fall.*

From the South

My Brothers,

Greetings to all. I trust that you and your families are well and in good spirits.

As daily challenges arise around us, let us remain centered on our moral principles, committed to personal improvement, and mindful of pacing ourselves—steadily and purposefully—one day at a time. In the midst of our continued labors and obligations, please note our upcoming Family Bowling Night on September 14th at Greenacres Bowl, Master Mason Degree on September 26th and our Family Picnic on November 7th at Okeeheelee Park.

Heartfelt congratulations to Brothers Andre Morency, Andrew Miller, Jasen Yens, Leonard Mandel, and Scott Shulman on their Fellow Craft proficiency. Their dedication and progress are commendable.

My sincere gratitude is extended to all Brothers who lend their hands in the kitchen operations. Your quiet service strengthens the Lodge in ways seen and unseen.

Blessings to each of you, my Brothers.

Fraternally yours,

Angel L. Pabon
Junior Warden
